

Data Quality Analyst - Junior - Mid Level.

Alloc8 - The Data Talent Specialists - Present an exclusive opportunity for a junior -mid level Analyst looking for support, training and real career progression. Brisbane based role.

The client is a true global brand with a presence in the UK, Australia, America, Europe, South Africa, India and more.

The Role:

Working as part of a small team were looking for a junior to mid level data analyst with the following attributes:

- Strong command of SQL and Python when analysing data, specifically, going deep into a problem, and using tools like SQL/Python to understand what's happening and make recommendations.
- Good understanding of Data Quality, Data Governance and Data Management.
- At least 18 month commercial experience working in a Data Quality, Analysis, Engineering or Analytics role.
- Great problem solving skills with a knack for number and thinking analytically.
- Strong Math.
- Solid communication skills with the awareness to understand the commercial impact of Data Analysis and Analytics.
- A passion for working with Data and solving commercial problems through understanding it.

This is a great opportunity to join a well funded and mature company at a time of growth. You'll be rewarded with lots of development and training opportunities, a fully paid trip to the UK and the chance to work on something innovative at a global level.